Dead Pilot Was Also Lawyer

KENNER, La., March 31—George Piazza II, one of the Delta trainees killed in the Kenner crash, was a lawyer as well as a pilot.

Mr. Piazza was an attorney for James Lewallen, who had been quizzed several times by New Orleans D. A. Jim Garrison, in his probe of the Kennedy assination.

Mr. Lewallen was a former roomate of the late David W. Ferrie (also a pilot), who had been named by a New Orleans grand jury as a conspirator with Lee Harvey Oswald in the allaged plot to assassinate President Kennedy.
